

Pre-Lesson Comprehension

Target Language: simple past tense (be verbs)

Focus: You will learn the simple past tense to talk about finished actions and events. You will learn how to ask and answer with be verbs in this lesson.

Read and understand the target language below.

We use the simple past tense to talk about actions and events that happened in the past. These actions and events have finished. Let's look at an example:

- Ben was my English teacher last year. He was an interesting teacher.

In this example, the class with Ben was last year. It has finished, and the person doesn't have a class with Ben now. Here are a few more examples. Singular subjects use: was (not). Plural subjects use: were (not).

- singular:
- The trip to Japan was very interesting.
  - The flight to Japan was long. It took ten hours.
  - The flight was not on time. We landed an hour late.

- plural:
- The prices in Tokyo were very expensive.
  - The temples in Kyoto were very beautiful.
  - The movies on the plane were not interesting.

With closed and open questions, we use the following structures:

Closed Questions: was / were + subject + object

Q: Were the prices expensive in Tokyo?

A: Yes, they were very expensive.

Open Questions: wh-question + was / were + subject + object

Q: What was good about your trip?

A: The temples were good. They were very interesting.

Q: How was the food in Japan?

A: The food was very good. The sushi was very fresh.

Pre-Lesson Practice

Target Language: simple past tense (be verbs)

Practice: Now try some activities to help you use the target language.

Correct the mistakes in the conversation below. There are six mistakes.

Alex: Hey Sam, welcome back. How were your trip to Hong Kong?

Sam: It is terrible!

Alex: Really? What happened?

Sam: The weather were terrible. It rained every day and it were too hot.

Alex: What else happened?

Sam: The flight was late, and the hotel are crowded. The restaurants in Hong Kong was expensive.

Alex: Maybe you should stay home next time!

Answer the following questions with complete sentences.

Q: Where were you born?

A: _____

Q: Was your last vacation overseas?

A: _____

Q: How long was your last vacation?

A: _____

Answers

Target Language: simple past tense (be verbs)

Correct the mistakes in the conversation below. There are six mistakes.

Alex: Hey Sam, welcome back. How was your trip to Hong Kong?

Sam: It was terrible!

Alex: Really? What happened?

Sam: The weather was terrible. It rained every day and it was too hot.

Alex: What else happened?

Sam: The flight was late, and the hotel was crowded. The restaurants in Hong Kong were expensive.

Alex: Maybe you should stay home next time!

Answer the following questions with complete sentences.

Note: Answers will vary.

Q: Where were you born?

A: I was born in Boston.

Q: Was your last vacation overseas?

A: Yes, it was. My last vacation was overseas.

Q: How long was your last vacation?

A: My last vacation was one week.